

The Chinese at the 'new goldfields' student text questions

WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY
HERE & HIDDEN	HEAD & HEART
Here <ol style="list-style-type: none">1) What was the Chinese name for the Australian goldfields?2) Describe the appearance of a Chinese miner? Clothing? Equipment?3) How many Chinese were estimated to be in Victoria by 1860?4) Which official language did the Chinese who moved to the goldfields speak? Hidden <ol style="list-style-type: none">5) How did the Victorian Government officially restrict the number of Chinese on the goldfields?6) What happened at Lambing Flat in 1861?7) Why is Quong Tart remembered?8) List some of the characteristics of the Chinese miners?	Head <ol style="list-style-type: none">9) What attitude did many diggers have to the Chinese on the goldfields?10) Explain what you think would have worried the European Diggers most about the Chinese?11) Describe ways that indicate the Chinese miners and migrants were clever.12) As gold became harder to find, how did perceptions and tolerance of the Chinese miners change? Heart <ol style="list-style-type: none">13) What might a Chinese miner in 1860 write a letter about to send back home to his family?14) What aspects of Chinese culture do you think were accepted quicker than others around the Ballarat and Bendigo goldfields?